

Species restrictions:

At the current time, the following species are not to be planted or included on landscape plans in the City of Rockville, as they are not appropriate from an Integrated Pest Management perspective.

Tree		Reason
Acer platanoides	Norway maple	invasive
Cornus florida	Flowering dogwood	dogwood anthracnose and borers
Fraxinus sp.	Ash	emerald ash borer
Pinus strobus	White Pine	weak wooded, white pine decline
Pyrus calleryana 'Bradford'	Bradford Pear	poor structure and weak branch unions
Quercus palustris	Pin Oak	bacterial leaf scorch
Tsuga canadensis	Eastern Hemlock	hemlock adelgid

Assistant City Forester
August 2004